

How to help at home

Year: 3 Autumn Term Topics: Our Local Area (Geography), Animals including Humans & Magnets (Science)

Possible places to visit:

Geography: The railway station, library, old police station and, the council offices, the Barn Theatre, Master Park, site of old gas works, site of farm next to church-now St. Mary's Close. Old Oxted-site of Beadles Lane School, old shops which are now houses, the lock-up Bennetts Cottage on the High Street, the pubs.

Science: Science Museum

Useful websites:

<https://www.rgs.org>

<https://www.visitsurrey.com/>

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize>

<https://www.nutrition.org.uk>

<https://www.jamesdysonfoundation.co.uk>

Relevant books to read at home:

Geography – Where my Wellie take me – Michael Morpurgo, Maps & Globes by Jack Knowlton

Science - Good Enough to Eat by Lizzy Rockwell, The Children's book of healthy eating by Jo Stimpson, I will never not ever eat a tomato by Lauren Child, How did that get in my Lunchbox? The story of food by Chris Butterworth

How to help at home

What makes a magnet by Franklin M Branley, What magnets can do - By Allan Fowler

Core vocabulary:

Geography: County, map, north, south, east, west, compass points, country, capital city, continent, physical and human features, British Isles, border, future development, past, present, transportation

Science: Nutrients, carbohydrates, proteins, fibre, vitamins, minerals, energy, healthy eating, food groups, dairy, fruit and vegetables, balanced diet, fats, food pyramid, bone names, muscles, skeleton, skeletal system, protection, support, magnet, attract, repel, north, south, pole, force