

How to help at home

Year: 5 Autumn Term Topics: Changes in Britain over time, Properties of materials, Forces, Renaissance, William Morris

Possible places to visit:

Science: Science Museum, The Royal Institution

History: Hever Castle, British Museum, Hampton Court Palace, Brooklands Museum, Bodiam Castle, Arundel Castle, Victoria and Albert Museum, Hastings

Art: Standen House, National Art Gallery, Dulwich Art Gallery

Useful websites:

Science: <https://www.ducksters.com/science/physics/>

History: <http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/>

Art: https://www.ducksters.com/history/renaissance_artists.php

Relevant books to read at home:

Science: The Everything Kids' Science Experiments Book

History: The Usborne History of Britain, Horrible Histories

Art: The Renaissance Artists: With History Projects for Kids, V&A Introduces: William Morris

Core vocabulary:

Science: Force, push, pull, balanced, unbalanced, opposing, gravity, air resistance, water resistance, friction, reversible, irreversible, reaction, variable.

History: chronology, monarch, civil war, peasant, revolt, Feudal system, plague, serf, crusades, remedy, black death, (British) empire, sovereign, ruler, time line, evidence, invention, era, The Act of Union, commonwealth, invasion, defeat, depose, architecture, civilisation, constituency, power, technology

Art: shading, tone, line, horizontal, vertical, shape, geometric, regular, irregular, texture, highlights, shadows, mid-tones, visual, pattern, primary secondary, tertiary, colours.