A few weeks ago, Barber Van Surrey (aka Shan) came to me with a fundraising idea. One so exciting, so utterly insane I begged him that I could sign up too.

A SKYDIVE.

In my final year as chair of the PTA, St. Mary's Primary, it suits to go out on a high, a final swan song to raise funds for the current and future pupils as well as the Oxted community in the new refurbished school pool.

I can't think of a better person to leap out of a plane with than Shan. His commitment to the PTA, his enthusiasm, energy and passion is contagious – he's also done a skydive before so I'm in good hands.....& know it is survivable!

So, on Saturday 9th July Shan & I will put on the glamorous jumpsuit & baby bjorn style harness, go 12,000ft up in a plane and casually jump out. Yup, that's it in a nutshell.

Also joining us on our skydive is a little St. Mary's Seal pup who is desperately in need of a name. This cute pup will be touring the school in the run up to the jump asking pupils to pop 50p in his bucket and a name suggestion. Moments before the pup jumps with me, the winning name will be announced, and the lucky owner will get to hear all the exciting stories of its adventure!

Watch out for updates on the Friends of St. Mary's Facebook page, @thebarbervansurrey, class dojo and anywhere else we can think of to spread the word.

Thank you everyone for your generous sponsorship in the amazing, 'We dive so you can splash' challenge.
